Pasadena Community Orchestra

Pasadena Community Orchestra's vision has consistently been to bring beautiful music to the community, free of charge. Formed in 1983 by a group of classical musicians, led by conductor Wayne Reinecke, the orchestra consists of musicians from many walks of life; they are medical professionals, lawyers, teachers, students, local business people, retirees – all of whom love music and are willing to give their time for the opportunity to bring beautiful music to life.

PCO performs four concerts per season in the sanctuary of First Church of the Nazarene, 3700 E. Sierra Madre Boulevard. A Chamber Music Gala is held in early March, featuring a local artist. The orchestra also sponsors a Young Artist Competition, whose winner has the opportunity, often their first, to perform with a live orchestra in May. A Pops concert in Sierra Madre Memorial Park in June ends the season.
