Tonight's Featured Artists

Tonight's featured artists are the members of the Pasadena Community Orchestra itself. Pasadena community members founded the orchestra in September 1983 to continue an organization that had existed since the late 1930's. A core of musicians from Pasadena Community College district grew as the orchestra improved in membership and support. Today, orchestra members come from Pasadena, Glendale, and throughout the San Gabriel and San Fernando Valleys, and often farther. They dedicate themselves to weekly rehearsals, and individual practice to produce five fine programs each year.

This evening's selections by Schubert and Tchaikovsky feature our talented musicians, in solo, small groups, and in full tutti passages. Please enjoy the concert, from the whispers of the symphony opening until the glorious, powerful sound of the full orchestra ends the great ballet of the nineteenth century.
