CONCERT NOTES

Our 5th Annual Benefit Concert and Gala is Sunday, February 28th from 2:30 to 5:00 p.m.

We are delighted to announce that this year's Benefit Concert and Gala will feature Ensemble Hotteterre, founded by Drs. Paul Sherman and Asuncion Ojeda. The concert, entitled "Winds of Change," juxtaposes the best of Baroque wind music (performed on original instruments) with discussions of the music, art, politics, and society of the period. Once you've heard this performance, you may never want to hear Baroque music played by anyone else (it's that gorgeous!)? In addition to this rare opportunity to hear chamber music in an intimate and historic setting, you'll enjoy complimentary wine and other beverages, catered hors d'oeuvres and dessert. If you would like to receive an invitation to the event, please fill out a form in the lobby and leave it at the table. More information is available at www.pcomusic.org, 626.445.6708, and publicity@pcomusic.org.

Support PCO

Join the many donors who make Pasadena Community Orchestra's mission possible. New this season, donors at the "Conductor's Podium" and "Major Benefactor" levels will receive complimentary high-quality audio recordings from our concerts this year.

PCO would like your feedback!

It is with great appreciation that we announce that radio ads on KUSC-FM (November, January, and March concerts) and KPCC-FM (May concert) will be secured this season, thanks to the continued generosity of the Michael J. Connell Foundation, the City of Pasadena Arts & Culture Commission, and long-time supporter Tom Markey. PCO would like to track audience response to these broadcasts in order to gauge their effectiveness. Do listen for the beautiful announcements starting two weeks before each concert. We hope you enjoy hearing from us over the airwaves. If you have already heard the radio spots, please take a moment to let PCO musicians and staff know. We would really appreciate your help. Thanks!
